Reports

President's Report (Jamie Dulcie): Voting in April for new PTO Board. In need of volunteers for upcoming events.

Treasurer Report (Kwyn Bontrager): Jenn and Travis voted to approve budget.

Secretary Report (Mark Lehman): None

VP Report (Tracey Evans): Square 1 Art to be mailed by Tuesday, March 19. T-Shirt fundraiser at a little over $2000 in sales at this point.

Principal Report (Joe Hug): Spring Break begins after next week (March 23rd). Achievement Quest for 3rd Grade is rolling along. Student and teacher illness in school is at high level right now. Next Behavior Party is Magic Show. Test dates in April (see newsletter).

Teacher Liaison (Lisa Wagner): None

Unfinished business

Winter Parties: Went smoothly. No complaints.

New business

Book Fair (April 8-11): Travis reported that the theme is Enchanted Forest. Paper volunteer sign up sheet requested. Additional discussion ensued about sending the link to the online sign up to Mr. Hug to send out via REMIND.

Field Day (May 24): Jenn reported that inflatables are set. No other information as of yet.

Parent Volunteers: Jenn reported that volunteers are going to be needed for 4th grade events, Field Day, and Book Fair.

Snack Sacks: Mandy reported that Kim Matasich expressed interest in taking this over next school year. Joe reported that she will still need help so volunteers are always appreciated.

Collections: Mandy reported that box tops collection is down and she'd like a big push for the end of year.

Square 1 Art: Previously discussed.

Spirit Shop: Next one March 22

4th Grade Events: Rec Center booked. Follow-up requested regarding $50 deposit. Request to double check on Rec Center staff availability for that day.
