

Hidden in

Plain Sight

An awareness program for parents and adults

Jan. 30 from 6-9 p.m.

"Snoop and Search" starts at 6 p.m., followed by a presentation at 6:30 p.m.

Pfeiffer Intermediate School will be hosting "Hidden in Plain Sight," a program to raise awareness of the signs of drug and alcohol abuse in a teenager's bedroom. The audience will have 30 minutes to "snoop and search" the unique display of an interactive teenager's bedroom with over 150 items that may be indicative of dangerous behaviors. An informative presentation and discussion will follow.

- Astonishing, interactive exhibit designed to resemble a teenager's bedroom
- Contains 150+ items which may be indicative of dangerous behaviors
- Presentation topics include: substance use, violence, eating disorders, juvenile crime, technology, risky games/challenges and more
