PERRY ACTIVE GYM

“Better Together”

Open to Perry special needs students in grades PreK-12 and their families.

Are you a student or parent of a student looking for a fun way to be active with others? Are you looking for a group to join where all are welcome no matter the level of skill, ability, or age? A place where you can meet others and participate in a variety of fun physical activities in a relaxed atmosphere? Well, Perry Active Gym is for you!

March 1 & 8
April 5 & 12

6 - 8 p.m.
(Parent/guardian must be present the entire two hours. Families and siblings are encouraged to join in on the fun!)

Edison Middle School

About Perry Active Gym

Perry Active Gym will be run by the Perry Wellness Connection (PWC). PWC is a group of Perry educators, students, and community members that want to help connect all toward living an active and healthy lifestyle.

Participants will have the opportunity to explore a variety of activities organized by PWC that will incorporate fun, all-inclusive ball, fitness, dance, sport and leisure activities. A place where it's always “better together” while having fun and being active.
